My comments are as an individual lease holder. I wish to clarify that I am commenting as an individual and my comments are not affiliated with the views of NZTA in this instance.

I have been parking in the Downtown Carpark for 19 Years now and pay direct from bank for monthly payments for my lease for personal vehicles.

I am 82 years old and always feel comfortable parking here and working next door, which is convenient when it is cold or wet outside. We also come in weekends to park here and do shopping and sometimes park, take ferry to Devonport for lunch.

When there are lots of spaces in the city that are not fully leased or occupied, it is pointless to demolish a good carpark to build towers. Lots of seniors parking here will say the same.
