

Rabbit outside enclosure is captured by motion activated camera. Photo: RNZ

The predator-free enclosure at Te Manahuna Aoraki. Photo: Phil Tisch

Capped predator proof ZIP fence built in collaboration with Te Manahuna Aoraki. At 1.2 m high the fence is designed to keep out hedgehogs, mice, rats and mustelids, but not cats.- credit: Tara Murray

The predator proof fence protects a 200m long section of a 5m wide gravel road where the most intensively studied population of the robust grasshopper has taken up residence.- credit: Tara Murray

LINZ image showing the cultivated area at eastern side since 2016

REG team took photo on site last February 2025 showing the cultivated area from center pointing eastern side of the site

LINZ image showing the cultivated area at southern side since 2016