Pedestrian Right of Way

A pedestrian right of way includes the right for the grantee in common with the grantor and other persons to whom the grantor may grant similar rights, at all times to go over and along the easement facility on foot without any vehicle, machinery or implements

The pedestrian right of way includes:

- (a) the right to repair and maintain the existing pathway, and where necessary alter the state of the land over which the easement is granted.
- (b) the right to have the easement facility kept clear at all times of obstructions (whether caused by deposit of materials or unreasonable impediment) to the use and enjoyment of the easement facility.

The rights and powers set out in Schedule 4 of the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 shall apply to the aforesaid easement.
