

Appendix B: updated Table 33, Application¹: Summary of Westpower's Compensation Measures

Residual Adverse Effect	Proposed Compensation	Total Financial Commitment	Commencement of payment as per conditions	Term post grant of consents
Construction related effects on bats	Ten annual payments of $15,000 to an ecosystem programme in the region that supports the West Coast region's bat population	$150,000	Two months after the commencement of construction Part D, Condition 54 ²	Annually for ten years
Construction related effects on whio	Ten annual payments of $35,000 to an ecosystem programme in the region that supports the West Coast region's bat whio population	$350,000	Two months after the commencement of construction Part D, Condition 55	Annually for 10 years
Construction related effects on forest birds	$10,000 for each year during the construction of the Scheme where indigenous vegetation clearance is undertaken south of McGregor Creek	$20,000 (assuming two years of clearance activities required)	Two months after the commencement of construction Part D, Condition 57	Annually for 2 years

¹ Waitaha-Hydro-project-substantive-application-documents.pdf

² Attachment-11A-Proposed-Conditions-Resource-Consents-10.2.26.pdf

Residual Adverse Effect	Proposed Compensation	Total Financial Commitment	Commencement of payment as per conditions	Term post grant of consents
Operational effects on local biodiversity on whio	Up to 25 annual payments of $35,000 to an ecosystem programme in the region that supports the West Coast region's wider ecosystem and/or locally in the Waitaha Valley	$875,000 (assuming consents are granted for 35 years)	From year 11 (year 1 is the commencement of construction – as opposed to post grant of consents) Part D, Condition 56 ³	Annually for 25 years (or until the end of the life of the consents) following ten years of payments relating to construction effects on whio
Effects on recreational kayakers	$15,000 per annum	$ 525,000 (assuming consents are granted for 35 years)	Commencement of generation Part C, Condition 47	For the life of the consents
Effects on recreational visitors	One-off payment of $25,000 towards the maintenance and upkeep of existing Waitaha Valley walking tracks and huts	$25,000	Three months after the commencement of construction Part D, Condition 63	One-off
TOTAL		$1,945,000

³ Attachment-11A-Proposed-Conditions-Resource-Consents-10.2.26.pdf