ELEVATION | WHENUA TEITEITANGA

The most elevated areas on the Site occur along the ridgelines in the southwest, where a predominantly north–south-oriented ridge divides the two primary catchments.

This central elevated highlands, including the upper catchment headlands, is proposed to be restored and established as indigenous forest, free from development.

LEGEND

- Rangitoopuni Forest Project Extent
- Lot 1 and Lot 2 Boundaries
- Retirement Village Boundary
- Rural Urban Boundary
- Major Ridgeline
- Elevated Land
- Mid Slope
- Lower Slope
- Lower Land