- Whakaaetanga Tiaki Taonga is the collective relationship agreement that was developed in 2017. It replaced the previous culture and heritage relationship instrument known as the Taonga Tūturu Protocol, which was solely with the Ministry of Culture and Heritage. The new agreement provides for relationships with more agencies in the culture and heritage sector and sets out how the Culture and Heritage Parties will interact with the governance entity with regard to the matters specified in it. It was offered to, and accepted by, Ngāti Ranginui. This protocol is not specific to an area but what is found in an area that may be of Ngāti Ranginui heritage. (Culture and Heritage Parties means each of the following agencies Department of Internal Affairs Te Tari Taiwhenua (the agency responsible for the National Library of New Zealand Te Puna Mātauranga o Aotearoa and Archives New Zealand Te Rua Mahara o Te Kāwanatanga, Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga, Manatū Taonga - Ministry for Culture and Heritage, and Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa).
- Ngā Hapū o Ngāti Ranginui and the Ministry for Primary Industries have agreed to enter into a relationship agreement for fisheries, biosecurity, agriculture and forestry matters. Further discussion on the development of all components are intended to be completed within 18 months of the settlement date.

3. Ngāti Ranginui
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New and altered names obligations: The settlement Bill has been written to assign and alter new geographic names to particular areas of significance to Ngāti Ranginui. There is an obligation for these names to be the official geographic names for the sites and for public notice to be given of each name change. Te Whāngai-ā-Tamarāwaho (near the Waikareao Estuary area) name change site is near the area for the proposed activities. The other name change sites are not relevant to the area of the proposed activities. • Commercial and cultural redress obligations: The commercial redress package of Ngā Hapū o Ngāti Ranginui consists of financial redress, commercial properties (including vesting properties in fee simple in the trustees and obligations on the Registrar-General regarding vesting of cultural redress properties), and a right of first refusal for fish species introduced into the quota management system. There are 48 properties from the land bank, 3 Land Information New Zealand sites and Puwhenua Forest Lands (within six months of the settlement date Puwhenua Forest Lands will transfer to a joint entity with Ngāti Rangiwewehi and Tapuika). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The following sites located on public conservation land of cultural and spiritual significance to Ngā Hapū o Ngāti Ranginui will be vested: Omanawa River site (198 hectares), Te Rī o Tamarāwaho (76.1 hectares), Te Rī o Ruahine (97.6 hectares), Ohauti (86.2 hectares), Wainui River site (47.8 hectares), Te Awa Ngāumuwahine site (55 hectares), Te Wai o Ngaumuwahine (60 hectares), Tahawai (10 hectares), Waikareao Estuary Site (0.6 hectares), Waimanu ki uta (80 hectares), Waireia (121.4 hectares), Oraeroa (10 hectares), Te Kaki (3.6 hectares). • The Waikareao Estuary area property is relevant as it is near the area for the proposed activities. - There are statutory acknowledgement obligations arising which recognise the association between Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki and a particular site or area. This enhances the ability for Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki to participate in specified resource management processes. Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki have statutory acknowledgements over the following areas:
 - General statutory acknowledgement: Aongatete;
 - River and stream statutory acknowledgements: Waiou River, Uretara Stream, Waitao Stream, and Kaiate Stream/Te Rere a Kawau; and
 - Coastal statutory acknowledgement: Waiorooro ki Maketu (this statutory area is near the area of the proposed activities).

4. Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki

- In relation to applications and proceedings for activities within, adjacent to, or directly affecting a statutory area or an activity that will or may modify or destroy an archaeological site within a statutory area, relevant consent authorities, the Environment Court, and Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga have an obligation to have regard to the Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki statutory acknowledgements.
- There are resource consent obligations which require relevant consent authorities, for a period of 20 years on and from the effective date, to provide summaries and notices of resource consent applications to the trustees for each resource consent application for an activity within, adjacent to, or directly affecting a statutory area (effective date defined as the date that is 6 months after the settlement date).
- Cultural redress obligations include a cultural fund of $1,931,663 for Ngāi Te Rangi and $150,000 for Ngā Pōtiki. A total of seven properties will be vested in Ngāi Te Rangi totalling approximately 226 hectares. Four of these are exclusive to Ngāi Te Rangi:
 - Motuotau Island Scenic Reserve (2.5040 ha) as a Scenic Reserve;
 - Karewa Island Local Purpose [Wildlife] Reserve (3.5713 ha) as a Local Purpose [Wildlife] Reserve with an ongoing management right for the Department of Conservation;
 - Part of Ottawa Scenic Reserve at Otara Maunga (10 ha) as a Scenic Reserve;
 - Waitao Stream marginal strip (5.5 ha) as a Scenic Reserve
- Two of these, Ngā pae maunga, are shared between Ngāi Te Rangi and five other iwi as properties jointly vested in fee simple to be administered as reserves: Puwhenua Scenic Reserve (67.5ha) and Otānewainuku Scenic Reserve(119.5ha). The other cultural redress property Kauri Point (17.4) is shared between Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngāti Tamaterā as a property jointly vested in fee simple to be administered as a reserve.
- Financial redress: Ngāi Te Rangi to receive a financial settlement of $26.5 million and Ngā Pōtiki to receive $3 million. Both claimant groups will also receive accumulated interest on these sums.
- Commercial redress: Ngāi Te Rangi will have the opportunity to purchase 15 Office of Treaty Settlements Land Bank properties. Ngā Pōtiki will be able to purchase five.
 - Ngāi Te Rangi will also receive the right to purchase six school sites (land only) owned by the Crown and administered by the Ministry of Education (including Tauranga Girls' College site and Gate Pa School site) and the Tauranga Courthouse site (land only) as leaseback deferred selection properties.
 - Ngā Pōtiki will receive the right to purchase one Office of Treaty Settlements Land Bank property as a non-leaseback deferred selection property. Right of First Refusal over Crown owned properties for 174 years from the settlement date will also be provided, over properties for Ngāi Te Rangi and properties for Ngā Pōtiki.
- In recognition of the Collective Deed and Tauranga Moana Iwi Collective legislation providing redress in relation to Tauranga Moana, it was agreed and considered by (without in any way derogating from clause 4.4 (regarding the finality of the settlement)) Ngāi Te Rangi and the Ngāi Te Rangi governance entity that the settlement will not be complete until separate legislation providing for the Tauranga Moana Framework comes into force.
- There are RFR land obligations which apply to parcels of land that are in the coastal marine area (RFR means the right of first refusal and RFR land is defined as particular land vested in the Crown or held in fee simple by the Crown). The Mauao Recreation Reserve is RFR land that is near the project area.

4. Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There are obligations on the Crown to propose the draft settlement bill for introduction to the House of Representatives. Further, Ngāi Te Rangi, Ngā Pōtiki, the Ngāi Te Rangi governance entity and the Ngā Pōtiki governance entity have an obligation to support the passage through Parliament of the settlement legislation. • New and altered names obligations: The deed of settlement provides for changes to 12 official geographic names to particular areas of significance. The following name change sites are near the area for the proposed activities: Ōtapu Creek (Hunters Creek) and North Rock / Te-Toka-a-Tirikawa. The other sites regarding names changes are not relevant to the area of the proposed activities. • The historical account of Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki and the acknowledgements of the Crowns wrong doings in Tauranga Moana. • The Crown's acknowledgement and apology for historical grievances. • The Crown have committed to establish a relationship with Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngā Pōtiki based on mutual respect and cooperation as originally envisaged by the Treaty • Acknowledgement that Ngā Pōtiki have been effectively dislocated from the Rangataua tidal flats. The location of the effluent treatment ponds has hindered Ngā Pōtiki access and has made food gathering and other activities in Te Tahuna o Rangataua undesirable. • Recognition from the Crown that Ngā Pōtiki consider that development around the Te Tahuna o Rangataua has diminished the mana of this taonga and undermined Ngā Pōtiki's kaitiaki relationship with this area. Its degradation is a source of deeply-felt grievance for Ngā Pōtiki. • Without in any way derogating from clause 4.4 (regarding the finality of the settlement), the Ngāi Te Rangi governance entity consider that the settlement is not complete until separate legislation providing for the Tauranga Moana Framework comes into force. The Ministry of Justice is obligated to provide access to/make available the deed of settlement.
