

Grampians Solar Project

Site Location Plans to support referral under the Fast-Track Approvals Act 2024

The Grampians Solar Project is located between MacKenzie Pass Road to the north and Hakataramea Pass Road to the west. Figure 1 shows the location of the solar farm in relation to the local road network.

Figure 1: Location of the Grampians Solar Project

The Grampians Station site comprises six parcels of land contained in four Records of Title located The total area of the four Records of Title is 16,769.2466 hectares more or less, shown outlined in yellow on the aerial photograph below.

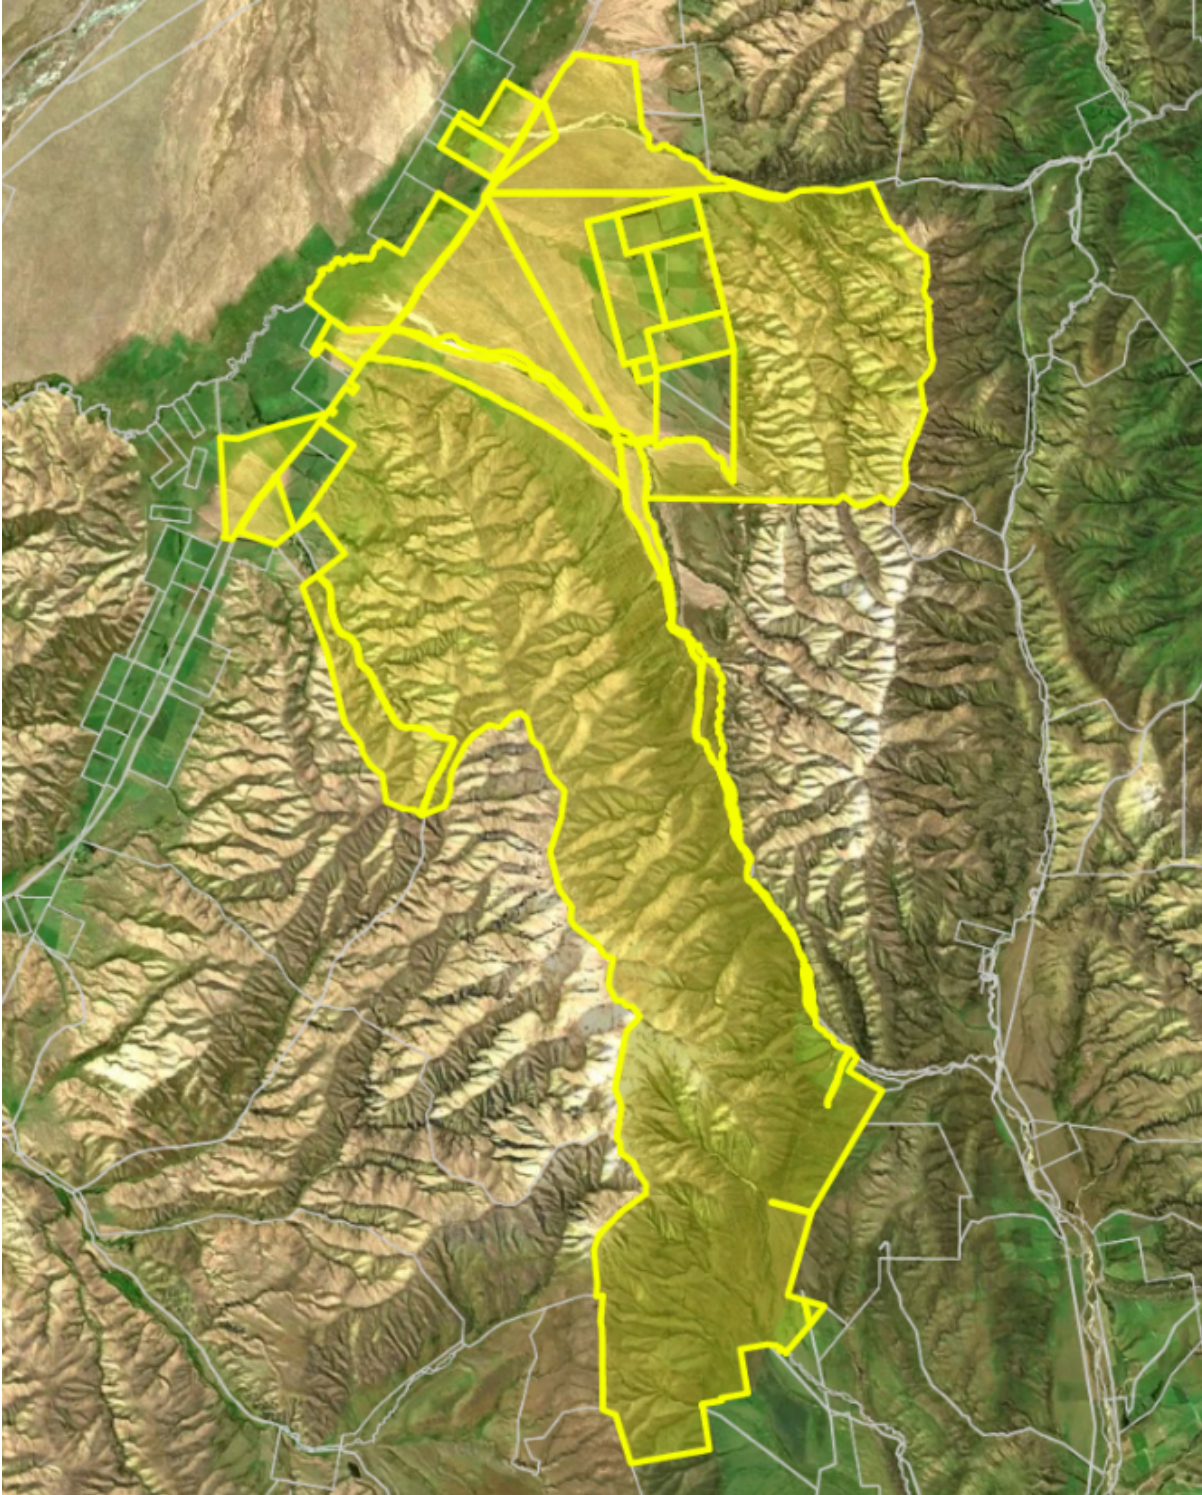

Figure 2: Overview of Records of Title comprising the Grampians Station Site.

The lease for the Grampians Solar Project is for 574 hectares of this total area, as shown in yellow below.

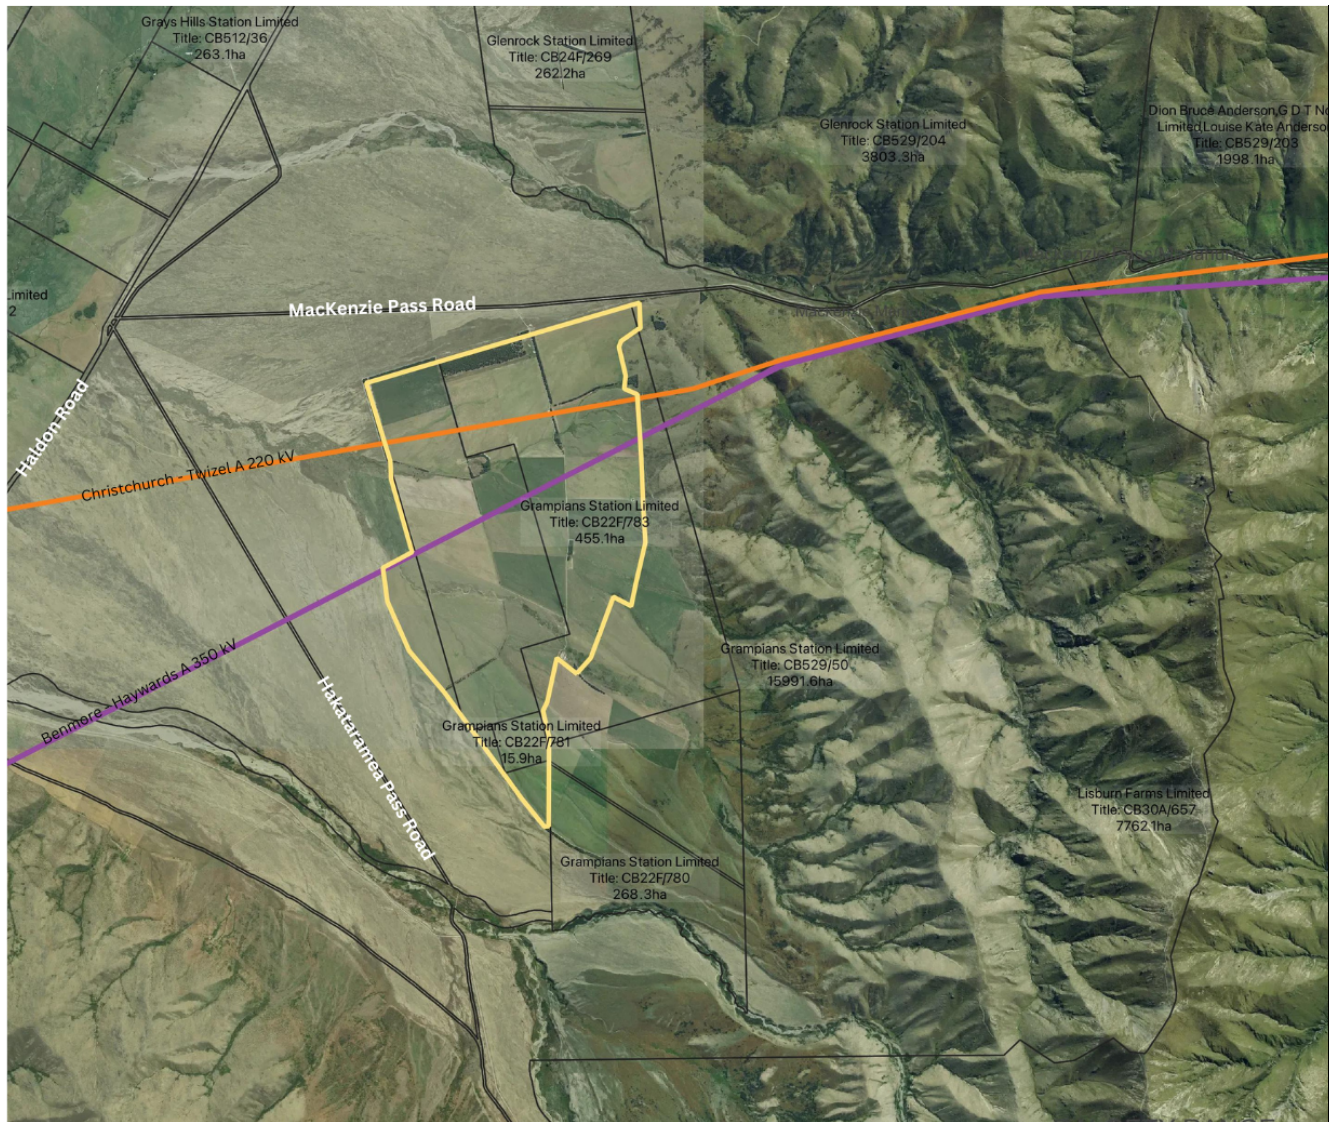

Figure 3: Lease area for the Grampians Solar Project.