	21 7 2025 13 06 35 Elizabeth Netta Plesse		ea	Yes	Sounds barriers are something I feel should a long time ago So definitely all the homes that are affected by the noise etc would appreciate the barriers
	1 8 2025 15 22 54 Moll Cassidy		ea	No	Don't think sound barriers are needed, it's not that noisy. The dust is more of a problem than anything
	1 8 2025 16 53 26 Pansl Chan		ea	Yes	It would be great if we could have noise protection from SH1
	1 8 2025 17 48 43 Jenny Hibberd		ea	Yes	Have been here 30 years the noise levels since the earthquakes have greatly increased to the point woken up with traffic from/dam unable to have conversations outside or leave windows or doors open due to noise, unable to afford double glazing and feel I have hearing loss from it. Would prefer trees and have previous message regarding

	3 8 2025 11 28 05 William McCartney		ea	No
	3 8 2025 17 42 40 David Leslie		ea	Yes	After living here for over 40 years, we are subjected to significantly more traffic noise due to increased volume of traffic and the prevailing northeasterly wind. It was also made worse about 5 years ago when the vegetation was trimmed on the western side of the motorway. I also note after a recent trip to Melbourne, there are noise barriers
	4 8 2025 14 44 44 Karen McSherry		ea	Yes	We have lived here for 25 years & we don't have an outside life & windows doors closed most of the time. Never used to be like that
	4 8 2025 15 57 46 Emma Brand	ea	No
	4 8 2025 18 27 23 Tejasevi Acharya	ea	No
	4 8 2025 18 28 38 Utsav Joshi	ea	No	We need sound barriers. Once the Belfast to Pegasus is built, the noise will only get worse and traffic volumes will increase as housing intensification and urbanisation booms
	7 8 2025 7 39 55 Belinda Smith	ea	Yes	Investigate the use of low noise asphalt as well
	12 8 2025 6 25 24 Louise Smith	ea	No
	12 8 2025 18 50 51 Jesse Reid	ea	Yes	Would be great to utilize the section we have and keep the doors/windows open in the summer
