AND

IN THE MATTER of Resource Consent
RM220154 Queenstown Lakes District
Council

CONSENT NOTICE PURSUANT TO SECTION 221 OF THE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT ACT 1991

BACKGROUND

- A. M & M Henry has applied to the Queenstown Lakes District Council (Council) pursuant to provisions of the Resource Management Act 1991 for its consent to subdivide land comprised and described in Record of Title 920173 (Otago Registry).
- B. Council has granted subdivision consent (RM220154) to the proposed subdivision subject to certain conditions which are required to be complied with on a continuing basis by the owner of the land from time to time being those conditions set out in this Consent Notice.

OPERATIVE PART

The following conditions pertaining to this Consent Notice are to be registered against the titles of the following allotments:

Lot 3 DP 586767 comprised in Record of Title 1111118

Conditions

- a) All future buildings shall be contained within the building platform as shown as Covenant Area A as shown on Deposited Plan 586767 (Building Platform).
- b) 'Good Ground' in accordance with NZS3604 has not been confirmed on Lot 3 following geotechnical site investigations. This Lot requires site specific engineering design (SED) of building foundations in consideration of indicative ground conditions providing only 200Kpa unfactored ultimate bearing capacity. Further geotechnical consideration and/or ground remediation shall also be provided in foundation design with regard to tree roots along/near the western edge of the Building Platform.
- c) At the time of future development within the Building Platform the owner for the time being shall install and maintain an access driveway from the existing ROW access to the Building Platform in accordance with Council standards.
- d) At the time of future development within the Building Platform the owner for the time being shall install and maintain on an on-going basis a private sewer pump station. This pump station shall be connected back to the Council network via the pressure lateral connection pipe provided to the Building Platform at time of the underlying subdivision.
- e) The Council water supply connection to the property is a restricted low-pressure supply. At the time of future development within the Building Platform the owner for the time being shall install and maintain on an on-going basis a buffering water supply storage tank and localised private pressure booster pump. This tank and pump shall be fed via the lateral water supply connection provided to the Building Platform at time of the underlying subdivision.
- f) At the time a residential unit is erected on the Lot, domestic water and firefighting storage is to be provided. A minimum of 45,000 litres shall be maintained at all times as a static firefighting reserve within a 55,000 litre combination of tanks (or equivalent). Alternatively, a 7,000 litre firefighting reserve is to be provided for each residential unit in association with a domestic sprinkler system installed to an approved standard. A firefighting connection in accordance with Appendix B - SNZ PAS 4509:2008 (or superseding standard) is to be located no further than 90 metres, but no closer than 6 metres, from any proposed building on the site. Where pressure at the connection point/coupling is less than 100kPa (a suction source – see Appendix B, SNZ PAS 4509:2008 section B2), a 100mm Suction Coupling (Female) complying with NZS 4505, is to be provided. Where pressure at the connection point/coupling is greater than 100kPa (a flooded source - see Appendix B, SNZ PAS 4509:2008 section B3), a 70mm Instantaneous Coupling (Female) complying with NZS 4505, is to be provided. Flooded and suction sources must be capable of providing a flow rate of 25 litres/sec at the connection point/coupling. The reserve capacities and flow rates stipulated above are relevant only for single family residential units. In the event that the proposed residential units provide for more than single family occupation then the consent holder should consult with Fire and Emergency New Zealand (FENZ) as larger capacities and flow rates may be required. The FENZ connection point/coupling must be located so that it is not compromised in the event of a fire.

The connection point/coupling shall have a hardstand area adjacent to it (within 5m) that is suitable for parking a fire service appliance. The hardstand area shall be located in the centre of a clear working space with a minimum width of 4.5 metres. Pavements or roadways providing access to the hardstand area must have a minimum formed width as required by Council's standards for rural roads (as per Council's Land Development and Subdivision Code of Practice). The roadway shall be trafficable in all weathers and be capable of withstanding an axle load of 8.2 tonnes or have a load bearing capacity of no less than the public roadway serving the property, whichever is the lower. Access shall be maintained at all times to the hardstand area.

Underground tanks or tanks that are partially buried (provided the top of the tank is no more than 1 metre above ground) may be accessed by an opening in the top of the tank whereby couplings are not required. A hardstand area adjacent to the tank is required in order to allow a FENZ appliance to park on it and access to the hardstand area must be provided as above. The FENZ connection point/coupling/fire hydrant/tank must be located so that it is clearly visible and/or provided with appropriate signage to enable connection of a fire appliance. Firefighting water supply may be provided by means other than the above if the written approval of the FENZ Fire Risk Management Officer is obtained for the proposed method. The firefighting water supply tank and/or the sprinkler system shall be installed prior to the occupation of the building.

- g) Any external lighting within the Lot shall be located within the Building Platform as defined on the approved scheme plan, prepared by Southern Horizons Surveying & Resource Management dated 15-11-2022 (RM220154), shall be down-lighting only, and shall not create light spill beyond the boundary of the property.
- h) No cable telecommunications connection (wire or fibre optic) has been provided to the Lot and any reticulation that is subsequently installed shall be at the cost of the Lot owner for the time being, shall be within the telecommunications easements defined on the survey plan, and shall be underground and in accordance with the network provider's requirements.

Simplicity Living Limited

You have asked that we write to confirm the nature of the legal interest that Simplicity Living Limited (the "Company") has in the property currently known as "Section 9 Survey Office Plan 485598" (the "Section 9 Land"), which is currently contained in record of title 1142422 and shown on the plan attached, outlined in red.

We confirm the Company is the purchaser of the Section 9 Land under a conditional agreement that has been entered into by the registered owner of the Section 9 Land and dated 11 March 2026 ("the Agreement").

The Agreement remains conditional upon the following purchaser conditions:

1. The Company being satisfied with a due diligence investigation and receiving board approval;
2. The Company receiving approval from Public Trust (as statutory supervisor);

The Company may waive these purchaser conditions if it wishes to do so also.

The Agreement also contains a mutual condition as to approval of the subdivision consent. That subdivision consent is obtained by the vendor, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The subdivision consent is required to separate the Section 9 Land from its current title, and complete a boundary adjustment to include that Section 9 Land in the current titles owned by the Company (Lot 2 DP 617529 in record of title 1238571 and Lot 3 DP 606744 in record of title 1194482). The Agreement includes a process by which that application for subdivision consent is approved by the vendor prior to being submitted to Council. If the subdivision consent that issues is in full accordance with that application it is deemed approved.

Please let us know if you require anything further.

Title Review - Section 9 SO 485598 (part RT 114242) (“Section 9”) Report dated 9 April 2026

Introduction and Executive Summary

Section 9 is part of the land contained in the title referred to above. The approach taken to completing this title report has been:

- First identify interests in this title that relate to Section 9. That is because that is the only land Simplicity proposes to acquire from this title by way of boundary adjustment and include in the Project. Any interests that relate only to the other land included in this title have not been reported on and are highlighted dark red. These can be disregarded.
- Secondly, given a large number of these interests that are registered against Section 9 are either a right to convey/draw/store water and/or land covenants in deeds related to the same water scheme, those are reported on collectively (highlighted in yellow and blue). In general these are:
 - o Water rights granted relate in general to Areas AB, AC, AE, AF & A on SO 485598 which the design will need to accommodate;
 - o Land covenants in deeds, which e.g. may preclude vesting (unless the relevant land owners consent can be obtained), so e.g. the design will also need to accommodate this.
- Thirdly, there are other third parties with easement rights that require consideration. By way of summary these include:
 - o Private landowners with easement rights to electricity and telecoms over parts of Section 9
 - o Easement rights in gross to Electricity Southland Limited
 - o Easement rights in gross to Queenstown Lakes District Council
 - o Easement rights in gross to Glenpanel Water Trustee Limited

The design will need to accommodate this and/or engagement undertaken with the holders of these rights as part of the project as is usual.

Water Scheme Review – Lot 3 DP 606744 Record of Title 1199482 (“the Property”)

Key Points

1. There are two underlying water supply deeds, creating water schemes that are mutually enforceable by all owners in the scheme.
2. We cannot see any evidence of water supply infrastructure on the Property nor easements registered against the Property for any water supply infrastructure which would preclude development of the Property.
3. The Property is bound by the schemes and was originally part of a larger lot that benefitted and had rights to 425L/hour for stock water supply and 425/L/hour domestic water supply.
4. The Property benefits from the schemes and as a consequence once connected and using the water, will bear costs for operating, repair and maintenance of the schemes. If connected to the scheme and there are buildings on the land even if the Property does not use the water there is potentially an obligation to pay these costs.
5. The Deeds anticipate future easements might be needed to protect these schemes and/or the installation of future infrastructure on the land affected. In addition the owner of the Property grants the right to all that benefit to do anything necessary and agrees to refrain from doing anything which might prevent the exercise of the rights in the deeds. We believe that the intent of the schemes is to ensure the right to take water from the bore and pump and convey it to land the benefits using storage tanks also. We have included plans to indicate the locations of the bore, pump and tanks, which demonstrates the risk of the Property being called upon to house new infrastructure may be practically low.
6. To remove the water scheme, including all deeds and land covenants registered against the title to the Property will ultimately likely require the intervention of the Court. The schemes are registered in perpetuity and in our practical experience there can be some difficult in co-ordinating all owners to agree to remove the schemes at the same time (e.g. we can see in LINZ that the First Water Supply Deed (as defined below) affects 28 separate titles and the Second Water Supply Deed affects 652 separate titles and typically, for a Deed 9and related covenants) to be removed, would require all benefiting properties and their mortgagees to agree and sign the required formal documentation.
7. Court intervention is needed even if Council create new infrastructure as these deeds and covenants do not automatically get removed from the title as a consequence.
8. A deed of covenant must be signed by a purchaser buying the Property, agreeing to be bound if they wish to connect to the scheme. Arguably there is an ability for the Property to sell free from the Deed but we believe this refers to the original sale form the original owner of the property only.
9. An owner is liable under these water supply deeds only for those liabilities and costs applicable to their period of ownership.

Deed	Detailed Comments
769961.5	The deed (“the Water Supply Deed”) provides that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The covenantor (i.e., the owner of the land of which the Property was once part) installed water supply infrastructure which included a bore, a phase pump, a storage tank, and a supply pipeline system; • Properties in the area have the right to draw/receive water from these systems, subject to limits; • The owners of the properties benefiting from this scheme have the right to enter on the land where the systems are held, for the purposes of reasonable repair and maintenance. In addition, the owners of each of the benefiting properties are responsible for the maintenance and servicing of the parts of the scheme that supply their particular properties; • Easements are or will be created to record the water supply deed; • The owner of the land on which the bore, pumps, and pump station are situated must carry out all necessary repair and maintenance, and invoice the owners of the benefiting properties accordingly; • The scheme is intended to last indefinitely; and • Upon any sale of any land subject to this deed, the owner must ensure the transferee signs a deed pursuant to which the transferee covenants to be bound by the terms of the scheme. The plan referred to in the instrument (which shows the location of the bore, phase pump, storage tank, and general pipeline system) is not included. We have contacted Land Information New Zealand to see whether such plan can be located, though they have since advised that they are unable to located this either and they have referred us to that referred to within instrument 834400.3, detailed below.

A 4,500 litre storage tank shown as part of water supply easement "A" on Deposited Plan 21761 (to which water is to be pumped from the artesian bore). A copy of Deposited Plan 21761 is attached and marked Plans B and C. d. A water supply pipeline system along the water supply easements marked "A", "B", "C" and "D" on attached Plan A and "N" and "A" on attached Plans B and C. For clarification purposes, the water supply scheme works as follows: Water is pumped from the artesian bore along easements "N" and "A" on Plans B and C to the tank shown as part of easement "A" on Plans B and C. The water then gravity feeds back along easements "A" and "N" on Plans B and C, then along easement "B" on Plan A, across the road, and along easements "A", "C" and "D" on Plan A.  As such, the bore and pump are located in red below:

We believe this to be the area below (shown in yellow, with the Property again in orange):

As mentioned previously, the map referred to in the Water Supply Deed is not enclosed in the

	instrument. However, the Second Water Supply Deed contains the following:  The artesian bore and the pump and the tank referred to in subclauses 3(a), (b) and (c) also supply water to another water supply system separate and distinct from the water supply system the subject of this deed.  Based on the information currently available, we understand that this is in reference to the water scheme under the Water Supply Deed, such that the images on the previous pages show the infrastructure used for both the Water Supply Deed, and the Second Water Supply Deed.
769961.5 and 834400.3	Regarding both the Water Supply Deed and the Second Water Supply Deed, the properties which benefit from the schemes have the right to enter onto the land where the bore and pump are located (i.e., the neighbouring property to the east of the Property) and conduct any necessary repair and maintenance. In addition, all owners of the land specified in the Water Supply Deed and the Second Water Supply Deed are responsible for related maintenance and power costs in respect of the pump system. The properties affected by the Water Supply Deed and the Second Water Supply Deed are shown on the following pages for indicative purposes, based on the properties as existed at the time the schemes were created, noting that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The properties affected by the schemes are in pink; • The pipeline is in blue; • The water pump, bore, and water tank are in green; • The Property is (roughly) shown in red, for reference; and • The wider properties affected by the scheme are in orange (noting that due to their size, these are shown on a separate plan). As previously discussed, the drafting of the deeds makes it unclear whether other members of the scheme have the ability to require piping to be installed across the Property. While we do not believe that this was the intention, we cannot confirm that a member of the scheme would be acting beyond their rights in attempting to conduct works on the Property pursuant to this wider interpretation and that risk needs to be acknowledged. In addition, while we note that (pursuant to Schedule F of the Water Supply Deed) the owner of the Property is responsible for a share of the maintenance relating to the scheme infrastructure, clause 17 specifies that “a registered proprietor shall only be liable pursuant to this Deed for any liabilities and/or costs arising during such period as the land owned by that registered property is connected to and using the water supply scheme” but, there is a proviso that if connected with a building on the land then payment is due. As such, we believe the intent would be that you will be obligated to contribute to the scheme maintenance costs, if the Property is not connected and drawing water from the schemes. Similar wording is also included in the Second Water Supply Deed, at clause 12.
